

Operation Kindness to Offer Free New Year's Eve Pet Adoptions at All Locations

The animal welfare non-profit will help families welcome pets for the New Year with a special free adoption promotion at their year-round locations

WHO: Operation Kindness, a non-profit animal welfare organization

WHAT: Free dog and cat adoptions on New Year's Eve

WHEN: Tuesday, December 31, 2024

WHERE: All Operation Kindness locations

DETAILS: On December 31, Operation Kindness will celebrate the last day of 2024 by offering free adoptions of dogs and cats at all Operation Kindness locations. Operation Kindness adoption counselors will be on hand to help community members add a new member to the family, facilitating introductions to its lovable Texas animals.

Meet Misty, a curious and energetic two-year-old female cat who loves exploring her surroundings. Misty enjoys playtime and people can often find her zooming around, playing with any toy she can get her paws on. While Misty has a lot of energy to play, she also knows when it's time to relax. She loves taking long naps and would make a perfect cat for anyone who enjoys napping in their free time. Misty has been with Operation Kindness for over 200 days and hopes to start the New Year off right by finding a family of her own.

Pancho, a male two-year-old Pitbull mix, is a lively and affectionate dog who's guaranteed to brighten your days! This sweet boy is full of energy and always ready for an adventure. Pancho's friendly nature makes him the ultimate cuddle buddy after a day of play. He adores being petted and will happily soak up all the love and attention you can give.

Meet Sadie, an eight-year-old female Shepard mix who still has that puppy energy in her! This active, energetic pup is bursting with love and personality. Whether it's a long walk around the neighborhood or an adventurous hike, Sadie is always ready to go! With a big heart and an endless supply of enthusiasm, she makes every outing an adventure.
