

Operation Kindness and Galleria Dallas celebrate Valentine's Day with 'Petals & Puppies'

Galleria Dallas will host Operation Kindness, an animal welfare non-profit, for a pop-up Valentine's Day puppy adoption and flower bouquet event

Who: Operation Kindness, an animal welfare non-profit, and Galleria Dallas, an iconic shopping center

What: Petals & Puppies

When: 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Friday, Feb. 14

Where: Galleria Dallas, 13350 Dallas Parkway, Dallas

Details: We've all heard of "puppy love," but when you're literally talking about four-legged friends, that feeling is even better. This Valentine's Day, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., Galleria Dallas will host Operation Kindness for a perfect one-day popup experience near the Valentine's wall on Level 1 next to Apple

On Feb. 14, Operation Kindness will have adoptable puppies and kittens on hand for adoption at the shopping center. Adoption fees are $205 for dogs and $155 for cats and include spay or neuter before adoption, age-appropriate core vaccinations, microchip and more.

With each adoption, you'll receive a beautiful bouquet from Operation Kindness. Additionally, those who would like to support the organization but can't adopt an animal at this time can purchase a nosegay for $20, with proceeds benefiting the nonprofit.

"Both our shoppers and our team at Galleria Dallas love having these adoptable animals in the center, and we're proud to help Operation Kindness find loving homes for so many pets," said Angie Freed, Galleria Dallas' general manager.

"Especially during the winter, it's critical that we find homes for as many animals in North Texas as possible," said Ed Jamison, CEO of Operation Kindness. "It means so much to work with Galleria Dallas to introduce our lovable animals to their new families."
